CAADPE, the California Association of Alcohol and Drug Program Executives, is a professional association of community-based non-profit alcohol recovery and other drug abuse treatment agency executives. Member agencies provide substance use services at over 300 sites in California.

Established in 1989, CAADPE is the only statewide association representing all modalities of substance use treatment programs.

CAADPE is organized by chapters throughout the state, with a main office located in Sacramento for CAADPE's staff to advocate to state government.

A board of directors, elected by the membership guides the association and its policies on vital issues to the membership.

CAADPE has a long history of successfully advocating on substance use issues and legislation.

Our Priorities

1. Promote and support health and social equity across all SUD services and policies
2. Promote and support efforts to provide the necessary state and federal resources for individuals to access SUD services at an individual's assessed level and in a timely manner. (Enough money for treatment on demand).
3. Promote and support proposals to reduce bureaucratic barriers to an individual securing SUD services. (this would include paperwork reduction, cost report reform, eligibility for peer support services, etc).
4. Promote and support efforts to strengthen and expand the SUD workforce to address the current shortage and meet the growing demand for SUD services.
5. Promote and support care integration of SUD services.
6. Promote and support the state's adoption of new and emerging SUD evidence-based treatment strategies and technologies (e.g. telehealth, contingency management and OPP).
7. Oppose any state and federal efforts to diminish or reduce the availability and/or access to SUD services. (e.g. STOP funding, backfill of loss of realignment funds)

Education

CAADPE membership offers unique education opportunities for members to stay on top of the latest news, policy, and research in the field of substance use disorder treatment. CAADPE sponsors education opportunities.

Networking

Member agency executives join a select group of the most dedicated, entrepreneurial, supportive, principled non-profit executives in California. They are available for encouragement, know-how, and collaboration. Members have reciprocal access to that collective wisdom.

Information

Members receive the critical information from CAADPE staff they need to make decisions for their agencies, and it is delivered quickly, clearly, and accurately. Weekly updates provide members with the best summation of state legislation, budget, and policy available in California.

Advocacy

Its voice is heard in Sacramento. CAADPE staff and consultants advocate with the Governor's office; the Legislature; state departments of health, social services, and corrections; with county government associations; and with other substance use advocacy groups. CAADPE works proactively to impact policy, budget, legislation, and regulation.
