

Why Join CAADPE?

Education

CAADPE membership offers unique education opportunities for members to stay on top of the latest news, policy, and research in the field of substance use disorder treatment. CAADPE sponsors education opportunities.

Networking

Member agency executives join a select group of the most dedicated, entrepreneurial, supportive, principled non-profit executives in California. They are available for encouragement, know-how, and collaboration. Members have reciprocal access to that collective wisdom.

Information

Members receive the critical information from CAADPE staff they need to make decisions for their agencies, and it is delivered quickly, clearly, and accurately. Weekly updates provide members with the best summation of state legislation, budget, and policy available in California.

Advocacy

Its voice is heard in Sacramento. CAADPE staff and consultants advocate with the Governor's office; the Legislature; state departments of health, social services, and corrections; with county government associations; and with other substance use advocacy groups. CAADPE works proactively to impact policy, budget, legislation, and regulation.
